PREFACE

India is one of the youngest nations in the world with more than 62% of its population in the working age group (15-59 years), and more than 54% of its total population below 25 years of age. India's population pyramid is expected to "bulge" across the 15–59 age groups over the next decade. It is further estimated that the average age of the population in India by 2020 will be 29 years as against 40 years in USA, 46 years in Europe and 47 years in Japan¹. During the next 20 years, the labour force in the industrialized world is expected to decline by 4%, while in India it will increase by 32%. This is an opportune time for India to transform its demographic surplus into a demographic dividend by ensuring that this working age population is skilled.

In 2014, Central Government formed Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship (MSDE) to converge multiple efforts in the skills space. The National Policy for Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, 2015 has the primary objective to meet the challenge of skill development at scale with speed, standard (quality) and sustainability. It aims to provide an umbrella framework to all skill development activities being carried out within the country, in order to align them to common standards and link skill development with demand centres. In addition to laying down the objectives and expected outcomes, the policy also identifies the overall institutional framework which shall act as a vehicle to reach the expected outcomes.

In these lines, the Ministry has taken up several measures to bring coherence in skill development through introduction of common norms, placing emphasis on demand-driven training, encouraging Public Private Partnership (PPP) model; bringing convergence and co-ordination across ministries and departments. Policy measures are being introduced to revamp the Technical Vocational Educational Training (TVET) track in education, to make both horizontal and vertical mobility possible and bring equivalence in 'general' and 'vocational' certification at all levels through NSQF.

The National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC), under MSDE, is a one of its kind PPP in India. NSDC aims to promote skill development by catalyzing the creation of large, quality, for-profit vocational institutions. MSDE intends to establish visible and aspirational training centres in every district of the country. These training centres shall be called Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Kendra (PMKKs).

¹ National Higher Education Mission, Ministry of Human Resource Development, 2013

1. BACKGROUND AND CONTEXT

MSDE intends to establish visible and aspirational model training centres in every district of the country.

The model training centres envisage to:

- Create benchmark institutions that demonstrate aspirational value for competency based skill development training
- Focus on elements of quality, sustainability and connect with stakeholders in skills delivery process
- Transform from a mandate driven footloose model to a sustainable institutional model

These centres will be state of the art training centres, called Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Kendra (PMKK). These centres will be exclusive, iconic and will be marketed as the best-in-class skill development centres. They will run industry-driven courses of high quality with a focus on employability. NSDC is the implementation agency for the project.
